NOMADIC DREAMER

Nomadic dreamers. Rich Retro Dream. The protagonists of a nomadic journey, dreaming of adventures and curious experiences rich in historical references. Decorative style, naive and classic romanticism combine in one eclectic theme. Dense with colours, iconic textures and decorative elements which resurface from a theatrical imagination.

Bags which are companions on a voyage through folklore, made of furs and embroidery. Authentic carry-alls in distressed vegetable-tanned leather which features brushed decolouration. Symbols and embroidery embellish surfaces; raised stitching and studs. Fur accents add warmth and a touch of Wild West allure.

Volumes are vintage and creative. Unstructured or rigid geometric shapes enriched by sophisticated decorative style.

The nostalgic side of retro vintage applies to men as well: cowboy casual. Farmer style for winters in the mountains. Fur, wool, organic cotton in art deco style.

Colourful bases like winter wax hues and earthy, concrete tones.

Accents in leather, yellow, orange, grey and muddy shades.

TRAVEL LUGGAGE

‘On the go traveller’ style for a chic globalist mind-set and the ‘new traveller-consumer’.

No gender, no season, no time. Only on-trend style which hovers between high-tech and natural materials: vegetable tanned leathers, wood, carbon fibre, nylon and canvas.

Multifunctional bags are preferred: maxi sacks, metal-finish suitcases, semi-rigid rucksacks, multi-use shoppers, semi-soft totes, shoulder bags and hand bags.

Travelling means bringing a small or large wardrobe with you in roomy bags where function fuses with style.

Trips lasting 24 hours, 48 hours, for spontaneous adventures in lands near and far.

Unstructured volumes which easily adapt to the traveller’s many different facets.

Contemporary colours: anthracite black, aluminium grey, dark blue, polymer white, natural leathers with natural matt/glossy vintage effects.
